

Pulaski County Virginia

Pulaski County
Board of Supervisors

Commonwealth of Virginia

Proclamation of the
Pulaski County Board of Supervisors
Officially Proclaiming January 29, 2019
Republic of Turkey Day

WHEREAS, the Pulaski County Board of Supervisors recognizes the many similarities the Republic of Turkey and Pulaski County have in common to include an agricultural heritage, a history of textiles and a foundation of advanced manufacturing in motor vehicles, transportation equipment and construction materials; and,

WHEREAS, the Board feels there are many pathways for Pulaski County and the Republic of Turkey to explore mutually beneficial business development opportunities, cultivate new partnerships, establish strategic collaborations and further grow our friendship; and,

WHEREAS, the Board is honored and privileged to have and to host dignitaries from the Republic of Turkey here in our community to proudly showcase the many assets and attributes Pulaski County and the New River Valley of Virginia have to offer.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors would like to extend our sincere appreciation and utmost gratitude to the Republic of Turkey for your willingness to visit our community, collaborate with our leaders and explore opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Pulaski County Board of Supervisors wishes to demonstrate our appreciation and gratitude by officially proclaiming January 29, 2019, 'Republic of Turkey Day' and the text herein shall be spread upon the meeting minutes of the Pulaski County Board of Supervisors as permanent testimony of our sincere appreciation and gratitude.

Proudly Presented this, the 29 day of January, 2019, in the County of Pulaski, Virginia.

By:

Andy McCready, Chair
Pulaski County Board of Supervisors

Attest:

Jonathan D. Sweet, County Administrator
County of Pulaski, Virginia